ECL- CLEA (Asia-India) Human Rights Summer School 2015 ends with success

On the mark of 800 years of the Charter Magna Carta, the summer school was a joint initiative of ECL and Commonwealth Legal education Association CLEA (Asia India). The event was participated by students and faculty from India and Bangladesh universities. The three day event was full of joys, networking, brain storming, and debating, mooting, quiz, writing practice, dinner and cultural tour to Runnymede, the birth place of the Charter. Please find what some of the participants said about the event below:

Dr. Lisa Rabin, resource person, Associate Professor University School of Law and Legal Studies (USLLS), GGS Indraprastha University, Dwarka, Delhi "We enjoyed our stay. The most interesting was of course our visit to Runnymede. Parliamentary debate is unforgettable." Gigimon Vidyadharan Sujatha, " Assistant Professor, National Law School of India University, Bangalore, India, " I learned a lot of things from the event, enjoyed to fullest extent with participants and organizers. I recommend a repeat trip in to the UK next year".

Tasrina Noor, chairperson, Department of Law, Port City International University, Chittagong, Bangladesh," the event was insightful, mooting and parliamentary debate got a high standard. I enjoyed the event and expect to return in next year".

AnanthaKrisnan, School of Indian Legal Thought, Kerala, India, "Parliamentary debate was of high standard".

Manuel Simon D' Costa, Govind Ramnath Kare College of Law, Margao, Goa, India, "The event meets our expectation and we are thankful to the organizers".
